

List of Tables

• Table 01: literary terms practice.	45
• Table 02: age.....	113
• Table 03: sex.	113
• Tables 04: secondary school stream	114
• Table 05: choice of English at university	116
• Table 06: importance of reading.	117
• Table 07: reading or a studying and preferable activity.	118
• Table 08: types of reading.	119
• Table 09: reading strategies.	120
• Table 10: reading skills and schemata.	121
• Table 11: literary competence and characteristics of literary text.....	122
• Table 12: literature and reading	123
• Table 13: context and metalinguistic factors.	124
• Table 14: multi-disciplinary role of literary reading.	125
• Table 15: the importance of literary genres reading.....	126
• Table 16: reading-based literature course.....	127
• Table 17: intensive literary reading.	127
• Table 18: extensive literary reading.....	128
• Table 19: literary text selecting.	129
• Table 20: reading skills and interpreting literary texts.	130

- Table 21: interaction with literary text. 131
- Table 22: extracting messages from literary text..... 132
- Table 23: literary reading and transfer..... 133
- Table 24: literature course progress..... 134
- Table 25: time allotment. 135
- Table 26: literature course management..... 136
- Table 27: the importance of literary course and input..... 137
- Table 28: teacher' qualifications. 143
- Table 29: teachers' experience. 144
- Table 30: intensive reading techniques..... 145
- Table 31: activities for literary reading extracts. 146
- Table 32: extensive literary reading techniques. 148
- Table 33: developing aesthetic and critical reading. 149
- Table 34: literary motivation. 151
- Table 35: material availability. 153
- Table 36: syllabus objectives and organization. 154
- Table 37: improving students' literary reading abilities. 156
- Table 38: factors of educational reading 168
- Table 39: the reading stages..... 192